Dayshift Officer

Reason for Complaint:

I have been without water in my cell for the last 3-4 hours. I cannot drink or use the restroom. Im in cell 9. In cell 10, there is an inmate who had a medical emergency last night, and is throwing up all over the cell today. Hes banging on the door and being loud. Hes also making a mess. The officers told him to clean up his mess, and they shut the water off to punish him until he did clean up the mess. In doing so, they shut my water off too. Not only is it hot in this cell, but I now have nothing to drink. Ive asked for it to be turned back on, but have had no success. You can check the cameras and see when the water was shut off at roughly 2:45pm. I am in SMU-A over a non disciplinary issue, and have already been cleared by the Housing Board to return to my unit (C2B) 3 days ago. I want to be taken back to my unit, and not punished with lack of water due to another inmates behavior. I will also be letting my attorney, Joseph McBride, know about this. Taking water away shouldnt be a punishment at all in my opinion, as it seems extreme (especially for an inmate who is
